

Auswertung der Umfrage mit den Chinesen

1. How do you buy a train ticket? How about buses, tubes and taxi tickets?

Online → convenient (Alipay/ Wechat to pay for everything)

In underground stations

new to pay with app? yes

2. How do you act in a restaurant? How to do you order? What are the table manners?

chopsticks → can't point sb with chopsticks

→ can't put in the rice

3. Do you tip?

No

4. How can you effectively spot original trademarks?

Buy in Wechat/Internet often fake

Baidu give some tips how to recognise fakes

How to avoid:

Buy in big shops are mostly authentic

5. How can you avoid being scammed on the streets?

look away; ignore

if you run away, they won't do harm to you

(cheating money; can't afford their life; break the legs absichtlich)

6. How should you act in public (behaviour)?

speak quietly in a low voice

trying not to spit everywhere

7. How do you dress in public?

they can go fashionable in public transportations

casual

8. How can you spot fake coins and notes?

costs of making fake one are more expensive, so there aren't any

see through air, touch texture

they still use coins/notes

9. (How do you get by at an airport?)
10. (Salutation when phone calling?)
11. Where and how can you find good night clubs and parties?

Shanghai night life is soooo gooood xD
Überall

vLive
Fusion
Myst
Street (lots of small bars): Xintiandi 新天地

12. What websites are used the most and what are the abroad equivalents?

Baidu, Taobao, Bilibili (chinesische Version vom japanischen "Niconico")

What popular sites are not available in China?

How commonly is VPN used?

~ 20%
VPN not free
(Instagram, Snapchat, Facebook)

What phone brands do you have?

iPhone, Samsung, Huawei
Oppo, XiaoMi
Nokia

13. How do you handle a normal visit at a supermarket?

mobile payments/cash
online instant shopping

14. What Chinese dishes do you recommend?

dumpling
hot pot
peking rose duck
goat barbecue
羊肉串

15. What do you do in a medical emergency?

16. What do you do if you get lost in Shanghai?

google map

call a taxi (if you have an address it's easy) → cheap

17. (How do you ask for vegan/vegetarian food?)

ask the shop/restaurant first → wäre höflich

what if they don't understand English

我是素食主义者，□□可以□我全素的□。

many restaurants still haven't vegetarian food

18. How does public toilet look like? (privy or modern toilets?)

dirty, mostly recognise by its smell mostly just a hole / depends → expensive places → clean access for disabled people (normal toilets)

bring toilet paper (sometimes)

19. Is there a dress-code in school?

uniform → they don't like it

can't wear casual

guard standing in front of the school

Do you have to wear school uniforms?

What about dying hair?

permitted

no make up

recommended hair cut for boys (hair like Alex)

→ if not, teacher comes with a scissor and cuts their hair

hair not black, someone comes and makes it verrry black

20. How do you buy street food?

in the nights - delicious

How do you avoid food poisoning?

They don't

They know it, but they don't care, bc it's delicious

21. Where in Shanghai can you find the best street food?

昌里路 田子坊 七宝老街